LOCAL MUD.

CITY COUNCIL.—The city council will meet in regular session to-night.

THE CHURCHES.—The churches were all well attended on Sunday last.

TRY THEM! TRY THEM!—Half dime, half dime cigar, Havana filler, at 2-8-4 COWPERWATK & PHILLIPS.

FALLING.—The rivers are both falling. The Mississippi is going down very rapidly.

REGULAR.—Trains on the Mississippi Central railroad are running regular again.

A LEAK.—A leak in the gas main in the vicinity of Tenth and Walnut streets was being stopped yesterday.

GORMAN.—Street Inspector Gorman was at work laying plank over the crossings on Walnut street yesterday.

BAND PARTY.—Don't forget the Amateur Band party, Friday, February 11th, at Kluge's hall. No gent admitted without an invitation, and must bring a lady. 2-8-3t

ICE.—Messrs. Muse, Loomis & Co. have contracted with parties at Dubuque, Iowa, for one thousand car loads of ice.

AT RICK'S.—Rev. Nelson Rick's church was crowded on Sunday night, at least one-fourth the congregation being white people.

RUNNING.—Ice in the Mississippi was running so heavily yesterday that it was considered dangerous for boats to attempt to start for St. Louis.

CAVED IN.—The sewer leading from Division street along Washington avenue to the vicinity of Twenty-second street, has caved in, and no water passes through it.

MUD.—Mud is plenty everywhere. Levee street is one grand mud hole, and Commercial avenue is not much better. Washington avenue is dry, compared to the other streets of the city.

ENCAMPMENT, I. O. O. F.—The members of Cairo Encampment are hereby notified that an adjourned meeting of the Lodge will take place this (Tuesday) evening, for work in all the degrees.

C. K. SLACK, Scribe.

LAST PULL.—The people will have a last and finishing deal at Thom's groceries to-day. Be around at 2 o'clock p. m., and buy at your own prices. See assignee's notice in another column.

A ROW.—Old Archy Chambers and his wife indulged in one of their periodical rows last night. Archy got whipped, of course, but he got even with his wife by swearing at her. He is undoubtedly the most accomplished swearer in Cairo.

LICENSES.—It is said by those who ought to know that there is not a saloon in the city running without license. A few men who sold liquor last year have refused to take out license and closed up their places.

FOR SPRINGFIELD.—Deputy Sheriff John Sheehan and Police Constables Wooten and Sargent have been summoned to appear before the United States court at Springfield on the tenth inst., to testify in the case of the two men recently arrested in this city for passing counterfeit money.

OUT AT THE LEVEE.—On Sunday afternoon Aldermen Wright, Rittenhouse, Nellis and Lancaster, of the Levee Committee, and Alderman B. F. Parker, went out to look at the new levee. They went over the work from one end to the other, and expressed themselves well satisfied with the condition of the levee so far as completed.

UNDER WATER.—The Cairo and Vincennes railroad is having some trouble with the water in the vicinity of Twenty-fifth street. The track is partially covered, but not enough to stop the passage of trains. All trains are running regularly, and arrive at and depart from their depot at the corner of Fourth street and Commercial avenue.

MAJOR & TESSIER.—Messrs. Major & Tessier are getting the machinery for their plow factory into shape. They have purchased the engine and boiler lately used at Ward & Lane's wood yard, and had it removed to their shop on Tenth street yesterday. They expect to be ready to begin operations in a short time.

DEADLY WEAPON.—Officer Sargent captured a drunken white man on Saturday night, and searching for weapons found an old razor in one of his pockets. It was ascertained that the fellow, whose name is Stevens, had threatened to literally chop up some parties. The razor was taken from him and Stevens sent to the calaboose, where he belongs.

BANKRUPT SALE.—I will on this day (Tuesday, February 8th), at the hour of two o'clock p. m., at the store lately occupied by L. D. Thoms, now bankrupt, sell at public sale, for cash in hand, so much of the stock of said bankrupt as remains on hand. A full attendance is desired.

GEORGE FISHER,
Provisional Assignee.
Cairo, February 8, 1876. 1t.

DRIFT WOOD.—"It's an ill wind that blows nobody any good," or words to that effect. The recent high water has brought immense quantities of drift wood down the rivers, and much of it has lodged along the levee banks, and as the rivers decline it is left high and dry. Yesterday a score or more of colored men were engaged in gathering it up and hauling it home to be used as fire wood.

FOR YOUNG AND OLD.—The fancy dress party, to be given at the St. Charles hotel, St. Valentine's night, the 14th, is supposed by some to be entirely a children's party. This is not the case. It is intended for young and old, and all who have invitations are expected to be on hand, and those desiring invitations can get them by calling at Robbin's Musical Bazaar. Everything will be done by the managers to make it a pleasant affair.

YOUNG FOLKS' PARTY.—Arrangements are being made for the Young Folks' Fancy Dress ball, at the St. Charles hotel, Monday evening—St. Valentine's day, February 14th. We gave the names a few days ago of the young ladies and gentlemen who compose the committees. The affair promises to be a grand success. The floor managers will be Mrs. Charles Gallagher, Mrs. Charles Thrupp, Mrs. Wm. H. Schutter, Mrs. Phil K. Howard and Mrs. Charles Pink.

THE TAPPING.—At about 8 o'clock last night two negroes went into Cain's grocery store, and while one of them engaged Mr. C.'s attention in examining some lamps in the rear of the store, the other robbed the money drawer of some five or six dollars in change and disappeared. Mr. Cain discovering the theft before the second negro got out, called a policeman and had him arrested and locked up. The other one had not been captured at ten o'clock.

BURGLARY.—Sometime during Sunday night or Monday morning, burglars broke into the store-room at the St. Charles hotel, and carried off a small quantity of provisions of different kinds. The thief got into the room by removing the lock from the door, in doing which he must have cut his hand severely, as bloody marks were left on the door. Passing from the store-room to the laundry the thief picked up a sheet, on which he left considerable blood stains, showing the marks of three fingers. The thief or thieves made their escape without being discovered.

DROWNED.—Old man John Roach, for twenty years a resident of this city, was drowned in the Ohio river, opposite Cairo, on Sunday last. Mr. Roach had rented a piece of ground on the river bank in Kentucky opposite this city, and was intending to make a crop upon it. The field is now under water, and on Sunday the old man went out to see if the fences were all right. He had to make his way on the fence, and losing his balance fell into the water and was drowned. His remains were brought to Cairo, and were yesterday taken to Villa Ridge for interment. Mr. Roach was a member of St. Patrick's Catholic church, and esteemed by those who knew him. The funeral took place from the Hillman engine house at three o'clock yesterday afternoon.

PERSONAL.—Judge Green left for Springfield on Sunday night to attend spring term.

H. F. CHILSON. of Chicago, registered at the St. Charles yesterday.

Capt. J. Vost. of Metropolis, was a guest at the St. Charles yesterday.

F. W. COOPER. of Los Angeles, California, was in the city yesterday, and quartered at the St. Charles hotel.

Mr. Bart Rexford. brother of Mr. H. S. Rexford of the Planters' House, is in the city visiting.

We understand Judge Mulkey will start for Springfield to-morrow, where he goes to attend an important law suit before the supreme court.

Mr. Hartwell. states attorney for Williamson county, is still in the city, and will remain until a verdict in the Crain murder trial has been rendered.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The argument in the Crain murder trial still goes on. Mr. Calvert for the defense concluded his argument at noon yesterday. At the assembling of court at 1:30 o'clock, Mr. Linegar also for the defense, took the floor and occupied the balance of the afternoon, and had not finished at the adjournment of court at 5:30 o'clock. A night session was held, and at 9:30 o'clock, when our reporter left the court house, Mr. Linegar was still talking. Judge Allen will make the closing argument in the case this morning, and it is anticipated that on this occasion he will make one of the great speeches of his life. The court house will undoubtedly be crowded to hear him. The case will probably be given to the jury this evening.

POLICE COURT.—Charles Brown, a colored man, was before his honor Bird yesterday on a charge of having been drunk. He was fined two dollars and the appendages, and sent to the calaboose for three days. Brown and O'Malley made the arrest. George Stevens for being drunk and disorderly, and for carrying concealed weapons, was before Judge Brown who sent him to the calaboose for seven days. Stevens was arrested by Police Officer Sargent. John Britton and Henry Stevens were arrested by Chief Gossman on a charge of peddling without license. They had in their possession a quantity of the worst kind of swine jewelry, and were peddling it out to whoever would buy. Judge Brown fined them ten dollars and costs each, in default of which they were sent to the calaboose for six days. John Williams for being drunk, was arrested by the same officer. Williams was no ordinary drunk, and a fine of ten dollars and the usual trimmings were charged to his account. He could not liquidate, and was sent to board with McCarthy for the space of six days.

COMMERCIAL.

CAIRO, ILL., MONDAY EVENING, February 7, 1876.

The weather has been clear and cold since our last issue. On Friday and Saturday the ice was sufficiently heavy for skating; but on Sunday and to-day the sun shown brightly and the ice is about gone.

Our flour dealers feel much better than for many days past. Yesterday morning the market opened up rather lively, and they are of the opinion that better times are near at hand. Hay remains very dull; there is no demand, and the market is full. Corn is wanted at 45c in sacks; there is very little in market. Oats have been active, and sales have been rather brisk. The supply is moderate, and there is a fair demand. Meal is a little firmer. Bran very dull. The market is bare of choice butter, and the demand is good. A few lots were sold to parties who were compelled to buy at fancy prices on Saturday, and it is said prices will advance. Choice apples are in demand; common are not wanted. Poultry of all kinds are in good demand, and there is some inquiry for dressed meats. Provisions are quiet.
